The MIC offers lockers for hockey patrons to store their equipment while not in use. Use of lockers is at the patrons own risk. The MIC is not responsible for any items stored in facility lockers and assumes no liability for such items.

Lockers are for the storage of a single lessee's hockey equipment only. They are not to be shared by other patrons.

Lessees will be held responsible for any damage caused outside of normal wear and tear.

Non-lessees are not permitted in the locker storage area. Locker storage area is not to be used for changing clothes.

A $25 late fee will be assessed to all renewal payments made received more than five (5) days after the lease expires. Accounts unpaid ten days after the lease expires will result in the termination of lease agreement and removal of equipment. (Lock will be cut on lockers that are not facility issued.) Refunds will NOT be issued for lease agreements terminated prior to the end of the agreement for any reason.

The MIC reserves the right to access lockers at its sole discretion if there is a suspected security risk or there is an environmental concern such as pest control or odors. Facility staff has the right to access a locker at any time should they suspect it contains items that put the facility environment in danger. Any criminal activity will be reported to police. The facility is required to provide police with access in the event of a criminal investigation.
